The SA8000 standard (Social Accountability 8000) is based on the principles of international workplace norms contained within the ILO (International Labour Organization) conventions, UN's Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the Convention on the Rights of the Child. The fundamental focus of SA8000 is to improve working conditions around the world. This intent has pioneered the way forward for organizations to improve and demonstrate their corporate social responsibility (CSR) in regards to basic human rights in the workplace.
